

ACHIEVEMENTS OF THE FIRST IDEAKSI

43
Proposals

submitted for disaster management innovation in the Special Region of Yogyakarta.

9
Innovators

were supported for more than 20 months.

4
Innovators

received additional scale-up support in the growth phase.

18
Areas

of implementation where local communities were involved in developing the innovations.

2.230
Beneficiaries

with 41.97% were women and 13.94% were persons with disabilities.

40+

training events, workshops, and learning opportunities at the national and international levels.

98%

of community members surveyed feel that community involvement efforts have a positive effect.

91.11%

think the innovations have increased the knowledge and ability of the community in disaster preparedness and response.

100%

suggest the innovations are suitable and can be used in their respective regions.

Funded by

elrha

START
NETWORK

